

Purchasing Photos

How do I purchase all the photos from (a game) that I appear in? And how much will it cost?

It is possible to purchase all the images you or your student-athlete appear in from d3photography.com at a discount. The student-athlete must appear in every photograph. This offer may not be bundled with any other discounts, coupons, or deal prices and the pricing may be subject to change.

We will invoice you directly before granting access to the images and a 3% service fee will be applied to all Paypal.com payments (but we do offer Zelle for free).
